1 AMENDMENT TO SENATE BILL 3288

2 AMENDMENT NO. _____. Amend Senate Bill 3288 by replacing
3 everything after the enacting clause with the following:

4 "Section 5. The General Assembly Operations Act is amended
5 by changing Section 10 as follows:

6 (25 ILCS 10/10)

7 Sec. 10. General Assembly printing; session laws.

8 (a) Authority. Public printing for the use of either House
9 of the General Assembly shall be subject to its control.

10 (b) Time of delivery. Daily calendars, journals, and other 11 similar printing for which manuscript or copy is delivered to 12 the Legislative Printing Unit by the clerical officer of either
13 House shall be printed so as to permit delivery at any 14 reasonable time required by the clerical officer. Any petition, 15 bill, resolution, joint resolution, memorial, and similar 16 manuscript or copy delivered to the Legislative Printing Unit

1 by the clerical officer of either House shall be printed at any 2 reasonable time required by that officer.

3 (c) Style. The manner, form, style, size, and arrangement
4 of type used in printing the bills, resolutions, amendments, 5 conference reports, and journals, including daily journals, of 6 the General Assembly shall be as provided in the Rules of the 7 General Assembly.

8 (d) Daily journal. The Clerk of the House of 9 Representatives and the Secretary of the Senate shall each
10 prepare and deliver to the Legislative Printing Unit,
11 immediately after the close of each daily session, a printer's
12 copy of the daily journal for their respective House.

13 (e) Daily and bound journals.

14 (1) Subscriptions. The Legislative Printing Unit shall 15 have printed the number of copies of the daily journal as 16 may be requested by the clerical officer of each House. The 17 Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of 18 Representatives shall furnish a copy of each daily journal
19 of their respective House to those persons who apply
20 therefor upon payment of a reasonable subscription fee
21 established separately by the Secretary of the Senate and 22 the Clerk of the House for their respective House. Each
23 subscriber shall specify at the time he or she subscribes 24 the address where he or she wishes the journals mailed. The 25 daily journals shall be furnished free of charge on a 26 pickup basis to State offices and to the public as long as

1 the supply lasts. The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk
2 of the House shall determine the number of journals
3 available for pickup at their respective offices.

4 (2) Other copies. After the General Assembly adjourns,
5 the Clerk of the House and the Secretary of the Senate
6 shall prepare and deliver to the Legislative Printing Unit
7 a printer's copy of matter for the regular House and Senate
8 journals, together with any matter, not previously printed 9 in the daily journals, that is required by law, by order of 10 either House, or by joint resolution to be printed in the 11 journals. The Legislative Printing Unit shall have printed 12 the number of copies of the bound journal as may be 13 requested by the clerical officer of each House. A
14 reasonable number of bound volumes of the journal of each
15 House of the General Assembly shall be provided to State
16 and local officers, boards, commissions, institutions,
17 departments, agencies, and libraries requesting them
18 through canvasses conducted separately by the Secretary of 19 the Senate and the Clerk of the House. Reasonable fees
20 established separately by the Secretary of the Senate and 21 the Clerk of the House may be charged for bound volumes of 22 the journal of each House of the General Assembly.

23 (f) Session laws. Immediately after the General Assembly
24 adjourns, the Secretary of State shall prepare a printer's copy
25 for the "Session Laws of Illinois" that shall set forth in full
26 all Acts and joint resolutions passed by the General Assembly

1 at the session just concluded and all executive orders of the 2 Governor taking effect under Article V, Section 11 of the
3 Constitution and the Executive Reorganization Implementation
4 Act. ~~The printer's copy shall be furnished and delivered to the~~ 5 ~~Secretary of State by the Enrolling and Engrossing Department~~
6 ~~of the 2 Houses.~~ At the time an enrolled law is filed with the 7 Secretary of State, whether before or after the conclusion of 8 the session in which it was passed, it shall be assigned a
9 Public Act number, the first part of which shall be the number
10 of the General Assembly followed by a dash and then a number 11 showing the order in which that law was filed with the 12 Secretary of State. The title page of each volume of the 13 session laws shall contain the following: "Printed by the 14 authority of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois".
15 The laws shall be arranged by the Secretary of State and 16 printed in the chronological order of Public Act numbers. At 17 the end of each Act the dates when the Act was passed by the 18 General Assembly and when the Act was approved by the Governor 19 shall be stated. Any Act becoming law without the approval of 20 the Governor shall be marked at its end in the session laws by 21 the printed certificate of the Secretary of State. Executive 22 orders taking effect under Article V, Section 11 of the
23 Constitution and the Executive Reorganization Implementation
24 Act shall be printed in chronological order of executive order 25 number and shall state at the end of each executive order the 26 date it was transmitted to the General Assembly and the date it

1 takes effect. In the case of an amendatory Act, the changes
2 made by the amendatory Act shall be indicated in the session
3 laws in the following manner: (i) all new matter shall be 4 underscored; and (ii) all matter deleted by the amendatory Act
5 shall be shown crossed with a line. The Secretary of State 6 shall prepare and furnish a table of contents and an index to 7 each volume of the session laws.

8 (g) Distribution. The bound volumes of the session laws of 9 the General Assembly or, upon agreement, an electronic copy of 10 the bound volumes, shall be made available to the following:

11 (1) one copy of each to each State officer, board,
12 commission, institution, and department requesting a copy
13 in accordance with a canvass conducted by the Secretary of 14 State before the printing of the session laws except judges 15 of the appellate courts and judges and associate judges of 16 the circuit courts;

17 (2) 10 copies to the law library of the Supreme Court;
18 one copy each to the law libraries of the appellate courts;
19 and one copy to each of the county law libraries or, in 20 those counties without county law libraries, one copy to 21 the clerk of the circuit court;

22 (3) one copy of each to each county clerk;

23 (4) 10 copies of each to the library of the University
24 of Illinois;

3 copies;

4 (6) the annual report of the State Board of Education,
5 6,000 copies; and

6 (7) the biennial report and annual opinions of the 7 Attorney General, 5,000 copies.

8 The reports of all other State officers, boards,
9 commissions, institutions, and departments shall be printed,
10 bound, and distributed at public expense in a number of copies
11 determined from previous experience not to exceed the probable
12 and reasonable demands of the State therefor. Any other report
13 required by law to be made to the Governor shall, upon his or 14 her order, be printed in the quantity ordered by the Governor, 15 bound and distributed at public expense.
