AN ACT in relation to firearms.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,represented in the General Assembly:

Section 1. Short title. This Act may be cited as the Firearms Dealer Licensing Act.

6 Section 5. Definitions. As used in this Act:

7 "Department" means the Department of State Police.

8 "Firearms dealer" means any person who is: (i) engaged in the business of selling firearms at wholesale or retail, (ii) 9 engaged in the business of repairing firearms or of making or 10 fitting special barrels, stocks, or trigger mechanisms to 11 12 firearms, or (iii) a pawnbroker whose business or occupation 13 includes the taking or receiving, by way of pledge or pawn, of any firearm as security for the payment or repayment of 14 15 money.

16 "Licensed dealer" means any firearms dealer who is 17 licensed under both this Act and Section 923 of the federal 18 Gun Control Act of 1968 (18 U.S.C. 923).

19 "Person" means an individual, firm, association, society, 20 partnership, limited liability company, corporation, or other 21 entity.

22 "Crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding 23 one year" does not include:

(i) any federal or state offenses pertaining to antitrust violations, unfair trade practices, restraints of trade, or other similar offenses relating to the regulation of business practices, or

(ii) any state offense classified by the laws of the state as a misdemeanor and punishable by a term of imprisonment of 2 years or less.

31 What constitutes a conviction of a crime punishable by

1 imprisonment for a term exceeding one year is determined in 2 accordance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the were held. Any conviction that has been 3 proceedings 4 expunged, set aside, or for which a person has been pardoned 5 or has had civil rights restored may not be considered a 6 conviction for purposes of this Act unless the pardon, 7 expungement, restoration of civil rights expressly or 8 provides that the person may not possess or receive firearms.

9 "Engaged in the business" means a person who devotes 10 time, attention, and labor to engaging in the activity as a 11 regular course of trade or business with the principal 12 objective of livelihood and profit, but does not include a 13 person who makes occasional repairs of firearms, or who 14 occasionally fits special barrels, stocks, or trigger 15 mechanisms to firearms.

16 "Transfer" means the actual or attempted transfer of a firearm or firearm ammunition, with or without consideration, 17 18 but does not include the lease of a firearm, or the provision 19 of ammunition specifically for that firearm, if the firearm and the ammunition are to be used on the lessor's premises, 20 21 and does not include any transfer of possession when the transferor maintains supervision and control over the firearm 22 23 or ammunition.

"With the principal objective of livelihood and profit" 24 25 means that the intent underlying the sale or disposition of firearms is predominantly one of obtaining livelihood and 26 27 pecuniary gain, as opposed to other intents, such as improving or liquidating a personal firearms collection; 28 29 however, proof of profit shall not be required as to a person 30 who engages in the regular and repetitive purchase and disposition of firearms for criminal purposes or terrorism. 31

32 "Terrorism" means activity directed against United States33 residents that:

(i) is committed by an individual who is not a

1 makes occasional sales, exchanges, or purchases of firearms 2 for the enhancement of a personal collection or as a hobby or 3 who sells all or part of his or her personal collection of 4 firearms.

Section 15. License application; requirements; penalty.
(a) The Department may grant a firearms dealer license to an applicant who submits evidence that:

8 (1) he or she is at least 21 years of age; 9 (2) he or she, including in the case of a 10 corporation, partnership, or association, an individual 11 possessing, directly or indirectly, the power to direct 12 or cause the direction of the management and policies of 13 the corporation, partnership, or association:

14 (i) has not been convicted of and is not under 15 indictment for a crime punishable by imprisonment 16 for a term exceeding one year;

17 (ii) is not a fugitive from justice;
18 (iii) is not and has not been an unlawful user

19 of or addicted to a controlled substance or 20 cannabis;

(iv) has not been adjudicated as a disabled
 person or committed to a mental institution;

23 (v) is not an alien, illegally or unlawfully,
24 in the United States;

25 (vi) has not been discharged from the Armed 26 Forces under dishonorable conditions; or

(vii) is not a former citizen of the United States who has renounced his or her citizenship; and
(3) he or she does not have a mental condition that poses a clear and present danger to the applicant, another person, or to the community. For purposes of this subdivision (3), "mental condition" means a state of mind manifested by violent, suicidal, threatening, or assaultive behavior.

2 (b) An application for a firearms dealer license must be 3 made on forms furnished by the Department. The application 4 must be verified by the applicant under oath and must be 5 accompanied by the required fee.

6 (c) The applicant must submit to the Department a license 7 fee of $300, payable at the time of application, and an 8 additional $300 payable every 3 years thereafter for so long 9 as the license is in effect.

10 (d) The applicant must submit to fingerprinting in 11 accordance with rules adopted by the Department and must pay 12 a fingerprint processing fee in the amount set by the 13 Department by rule.

(e) A person who knowingly makes a false statement or knowingly conceals a material fact or uses false information or identification in any application for a license under this Act commits a Class A misdemeanor.

(f) A license granted under this Act remains in effect until it is revoked, suspended, or otherwise withdrawn by the Department or until it is surrendered by the licensee.

21 (g) The provisions of subdivision (a)(2)(ii) do not 22 apply to a person who has been granted relief from disabilities under subsection (c) of Section 925 of Title 18 23 of the United States Code or to a licensed dealer who is 24 25 indicted for a crime who is operating under an existing license if, before the expiration of the term of the existing 26 license, timely application is made for a new license during 27 the term of the indictment and until any conviction under the 28 indictment becomes final. 29

30 Section 20. License retention; requirements. A license 31 granted under this Act is subject to all of the following 32 requirements:

33

(1) A licensed dealer may only transact business under

-5-

this Act at an address that has a zoning classification that permits the operation of a retail establishment.

3 (2) A licensed dealer may not transact business in any 4 place other than the premises specified in his or her 5 license, except that a licensed dealer may display, sell, or 6 transfer firearms at a gun show open to the general public or 7 at any regular meeting of an incorporated collectors club in 8 accordance with this Act and federal law.

9 (3) A licensed dealer may not violate any provision of 10 any federal or state law pertaining to the possession, use, 11 sale, or delivery of firearms.

12 (4) The licensed dealer must strictly adhere to the 13 provisions of all applicable federal and state laws and local 14 ordinances and local business license requirements.

15 (5) A separate license must be obtained for each separate 16 place of business. Before a licensed dealer moves his or her 17 place of business, he or she must promptly apply to the 18 Department for an amended license.

19 (6) The license, or a copy of the license certified by 20 the Department, must be displayed on the premises at a 21 location where it can easily be read.

22 (7) No firearm may be displayed in any outer window of 23 the premises or in any other place where it can readily be 24 seen from the outside.

(8) Every firearm must be unloaded when delivered.

26 (9) The licensee must obtain a certificate of27 registration issued under the Retailers' Occupation Tax Act.

(10) The licensee must take reasonable precautions to ensure that the firearms the licensee sells will not be used illegally. These precautions include, but are not limited to: (i) the refusal to sell a firearm to a person the licensee knows or has reason to know is purchasing the firearm on behalf of another person who could not legally purchase the firearm; (ii) the refusal to sell a firearm to a

-б-

1 person who has provided a home address in a municipality or 2 county in which possession of that type of firearm is illegal transferee presents reasonably satisfactory 3 unless the 4 evidence that the firearm will not be used or possessed 5 unlawfully in that municipality or county; and (iii) the 6 refusal to sell a firearm to a person who has provided a home 7 municipality or county that address in a requires registration of the firearm, unless the purchaser presents 8 9 satisfactory evidence of compliance with the registration requirement. 10

11 (11) The licensee must make available the licensee's 12 records to any officer or employee of the Department or of 13 any unit of local government in this State whenever the 14 officer or employee is authorized to enforce laws or 15 ordinances pertaining to firearms.

16 Section 25. Enforcement; revocation; notice. This Act 17 must be enforced by the Department, and may be enforced, for 18 the purpose of determining compliance with this Act, by any municipality in which the licensee is located or, if 19 the 20 licensee is not located in a municipality, by the county in 21 which the licensee is located. The Department, after due 22 notice to the licensee and reasonable opportunity for the licensee to be heard, may revoke a license or may suspend a 23 24 license for a period of time that the Department may deem proper upon satisfactory proof that the licensee has violated 25 or permitted a violation of any requirement of this Act or is 26 27 no longer eligible to obtain a license under Section 15. Α 28 person whose license has been revoked by the Department is 29 disqualified to receive a license for 10 years after the revocation. Any person who has substantially participated in 30 31 the operation or management of a licensee that has had its license revoked may not be employed by or participate in the 32 business of any other licensee for 10 years after the 33 revocation. Proceedings for revocation or suspension under this Section may be initiated by the Department or by a municipality or county.

Section 30. Submission to Department. A licensed dealer 4 5 must, within 24 hours after making a sale or transfer of a firearm to a person who is not licensed as a dealer, report 6 that sale to the Department of State Police. 7 The report must contain the following information: the date of the sale or 8 transfer; the identity and address of the dealer; the name, 9 10 address, age, and occupation of the transferee; the price of the firearm; and the kind, description and number of the 11 firearm. All records of the reports must be maintained by 12 the Department on a computer database capable of allowing the 13 retrieval of information for each dealer and each transferee. 14 15 The computer database must also contain a listing of each county or municipality that prohibits one or more types of 16 17 and the type or types of firearms that are firearm, 18 prohibited in that county or municipality. Information in 19 the database must be made available to any law enforcement 20 agency responsible for the enforcement of any federal, State 21 local law or ordinance relating to firearms, and to any or 22 licensed dealer who requests information relating to a person who is seeking to purchase one or more firearms from that 23 24 dealer. Except as specifically provided in this Section, information in the database are confidential records of the 25 Department and are not subject to disclosure under any other 26 27 law.

In addition to any other requirements of this Section, any licensee who was required by Section 3 of the Firearm Owners Identification Card Act to keep a record of a transfer of a firearm occurring within the 24 month period immediately preceding the effective date of this Act must, no later than 30 days after that effective date, report those transfers to

-8-

1 the Department of State Police. The report must contain the 2 information required to be maintained as records under 3 subsection (b) of Section 3 of the Firearm Owners 4 Identification Card Act. The Department must include the 5 records of those reports in the computer database required to 6 be maintained under this Section.

Section 35. Penalty. Any firearms dealer who sells, or who possesses with intent to sell, trade, or transfer, any firearm without being licensed under this Act is guilty of a Class 4 felony.
