AN ACT concerning public funds.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

Section 5. The Public Funds Accounting Act is amended by changing Section 4 as follows:

6 (30 ILCS 20/4) (from Ch. 102, par. 23)

Sec. 4. No funds, monies, or other things of value, in 7 8 the hands of the treasurer of any public or municipal corporation, shall be paid out, disbursed or delivered, 9 except upon warrant, draft, electronic funds transfer, or 10 order signed and countersigned by the officers of the public 11 or municipal corporation authorized to sign and countersign 12 13 the same. Such funds may be disbursed by the treasurer, by check issued or signed by him or his authorized deputy. If 14 15 required by statute, ordinance or resolution such check shall 16 be countersigned by an officer or agent of the public or municipal corporation on whose behalf such disbursement is 17 18 made. This provision shall apply to all treasurers, including county treasurers and ex-officio county collectors of taxes 19 20 and special assessments, and to all payments, disbursements or deliveries, whether under the order of a court or 21 22 otherwise.
