SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 1067

WHEREAS, President Donald Trump and Congressional Republicans are proposing radical changes to America's tax code; and

WHEREAS, The changes President Trump and his Congressional allies are discussing would benefit millionaires and billionaires, while hurting working families; and

[November 7, 2017]

WHEREAS, President Trump and Congressional Republicans have discussed removing the state and local tax deduction, also known as SALT, as a way to pay for their proposed tax cuts for the wealthy; and

WHEREAS, The state and local tax deduction allows families that pay local property taxes, state and local sales taxes, and state income tax to deduct those taxes from their federal income tax; and

WHEREAS, This deduction prevents families from being double taxed, once by the federal government, and again by the state; and

WHEREAS, The state and local tax deduction has broad bipartisan support and has been helping Illinoisans since 1913; and

WHEREAS, Illinois has the fifth highest number of taxpayers who claim the state and local tax deduction in the nation; and

WHEREAS, Nearly two million Illinois taxpayers claimed more than $24 billion in SALT deductions in 2015, with each claiming an average of $12,500 in deductions; and

WHEREAS, Of Illinoisans who claim a SALT deduction, approximately 85 percent earn less than $200,000 per year; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we strongly oppose any and all efforts by the Trump Administration and Congress to eliminate or gut the state and local tax deduction to help pay for tax cuts for corporations and the wealthy one percent; and be it further

WHEREAS, In recent weeks more than 300 legislators, lobbyists, staffers, and policy-makers have signed an open letter acknowledging and condemning the culture of sexual harassment in Illinois politics and government; and

WHEREAS, The problem of sexual harassment extends far beyond government to limit women's professional and educational opportunities in virtually every arena, with recent reports of rampant sexual harassment in entertainment, the media, technology, academia, and more; and

WHEREAS, Sexual harassment imposes steep psychological, physical, and economic costs on victims, which have the effect of reducing women's economic opportunities and lifetime wages, driving women from the workplace, and discouraging women from public service; and

WHEREAS, Sexual harassment also imposes costs on the economy, businesses, and employers by causing decreased productivity, increased job turnover, reputational harm, and costly litigation; and

WHEREAS, Sexual harassment takes a toll not just on women but is also frequently directed toward men or can take the form of harassment based on sexual orientation or gender identity; and

[November 7, 2017]

WHEREAS, Sexual harassment is too often combined with and exacerbated by harassment or discrimination based on race, ethnicity, religion, disability status, or age, and therefore requires an intersectional approach; and

WHEREAS, The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission has found that roughly three out of four people who experience harassment never report it because those who do report encounter disbelief, inaction, blame, or social or professional retaliation; and

WHEREAS, For too long Illinois has not provided victims of harassment with adequate recourse, allowing this culture of sexual harassment to go largely unchecked; and

WHEREAS, The members of the General Assembly recognize it is critical that this conversation continue in a productive and meaningful manner and that appropriate changes be made to maximize legal remedies and protections for those victimized by sexual discrimination and harassment; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that there is hereby created the Senate Task Force on Sexual Discrimination and Harassment Awareness and Prevention; and be it further

(15 ILCS 305/14)

Sec. 14. Inspector General.

(a) The Secretary of State must, with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint an Inspector General for the purpose of detection, deterrence, and prevention of fraud, corruption, mismanagement, gross or aggravated misconduct, or misconduct that may be criminal in nature in the Office of the Secretary of State. The Inspector General shall serve a 5-year term. If no successor is appointed and qualified upon the expiration of the Inspector General's term, the Office of Inspector General is deemed vacant and the powers and duties under this Section may be exercised only by an appointed and qualified interim Inspector General until a successor Inspector General is appointed and qualified. If the General Assembly is not in session when a vacancy in the Office of Inspector General occurs, the Secretary of State may appoint an interim Inspector General whose term shall expire 2 weeks after the next regularly scheduled session day of the Senate.

(b) The Inspector General shall have the following qualifications:

(1) has not been convicted of any felony under the laws of this State, another State, or the United States;

(2) has earned a baccalaureate degree from an institution of higher education; and

(3) has either (A) 5 or more years of service with a federal, State, or local law enforcement agency, at least 2 years of which have been in a progressive investigatory capacity; (B) 5 or more years of service as a federal, State, or local prosecutor; or (C) 5 or more years of service as a senior manager or executive of a federal, State, or local agency.

(c) The Inspector General may review, coordinate, and recommend methods and procedures to increase the integrity of the Office of the Secretary of State. The duties of the Inspector General shall supplement and not supplant the duties of the Chief Auditor for the Secretary of State's Office or any other Inspector General that may be authorized by law. The Inspector General must report directly to the Secretary of State.

(d) In addition to the authority otherwise provided by this Section, but only when investigating the Office of the Secretary of State, its employees, or their actions for fraud, corruption, mismanagement, gross or aggravated misconduct, or misconduct that may be criminal in nature, the Inspector General is authorized:

(1) To have access to all records, reports, audits, reviews, documents, papers, recommendations, or other materials available that relate to programs and operations with respect to which the Inspector General has responsibilities under this Section.

(2) To make any investigations and reports relating to the administration of the programs and operations of the Office of the Secretary of State that are, in the judgment of the Inspector General, necessary or desirable.

(4) To require by subpoena the appearance of witnesses and the production of all information, documents, reports, answers, records, accounts, papers, and other data and documentary evidence necessary in the performance of the functions assigned by this Section, with the exception of subsection (c) and with the exception of records of a labor organization authorized and recognized under the Illinois Public Labor Relations Act to be the exclusive bargaining representative of employees of the Secretary of State, including, but not limited to, records of representation of employees and the negotiation of collective bargaining agreements. A subpoena may be issued under this paragraph (4) only by the Inspector General and not by members of the Inspector General's staff. A person duly subpoenaed for testimony, documents, or other items who neglects or refuses to testify or produce documents or other items under the requirements of the subpoena shall be subject to punishment as may be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, unless (i) the testimony, documents, or other items are covered by the attorney-client privilege or any other privilege or right recognized by law or (ii) the testimony, documents, or other items concern the representation of employees and the negotiation of collective bargaining agreements by a labor organization authorized and recognized under the Illinois Public Labor Relations Act to be the exclusive bargaining representative of employees of the Secretary of State. Nothing in this Section limits a person's right to protection against self-incrimination under the Fifth Amendment of the United States Constitution or Article I, Section 10, of the Constitution of the State of Illinois.

(5) To have direct and prompt access to the Secretary of State for any purpose pertaining to the performance of functions and responsibilities under this Section.

(d-5) In addition to the authority otherwise provided by this Section, the Secretary of State Inspector General shall have jurisdiction to investigate complaints and allegations of wrongdoing by any person or entity related to the Lobbyist Registration Act. When investigating those complaints and allegations, the Inspector General is authorized:

(1) To have access to all records, reports, audits, reviews, documents, papers, recommendations, or other materials available that relate to programs and operations with respect to which the Inspector General has responsibilities under this Section.

(2) To request any information or assistance that may be necessary for carrying out the duties and responsibilities provided by this Section from any local, State, or federal governmental agency or unit thereof.

(3) To require by subpoena the appearance of witnesses and the production of all information, documents, reports, answers, records, accounts, papers, and other data and documentary evidence necessary in the performance of the functions assigned by this Section. A subpoena may be issued under this paragraph (3) only by the Inspector General and not by members of the Inspector General's staff. A person duly subpoenaed for testimony, documents, or other items who neglects or refuses to testify or produce documents or other items under the requirements of the subpoena shall be subject to punishment as may be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, unless the testimony, documents, or other items are covered by the attorney-client privilege or any other privilege or right recognized by law. Nothing in this Section limits a person's right to protection against self-incrimination under the Fifth Amendment of the United States Constitution or Section 10 of Article I of the Constitution of the State of Illinois.

The Secretary shall adopt rules setting forth the procedures for the review of such allegations.

(e) The Inspector General may receive and investigate complaints or information concerning the possible existence of an activity constituting a violation of law, rules, or regulations; mismanagement; abuse of authority; or substantial and specific danger to the public health and safety. Any person who knowingly files a false complaint or files a complaint with reckless disregard for the truth or the falsity of the facts underlying the complaint may be subject to discipline as set forth in the rules of the Department of Personnel of the Secretary of State or the Inspector General may refer the matter to a State's Attorney or the Attorney General.

The Inspector General may not, after receipt of a complaint or information, disclose the identity of the source without the consent of the source, unless the Inspector General determines that disclosure of the identity is reasonable and necessary for the furtherance of the investigation.

Any employee who has the authority to recommend or approve any personnel action or to direct others to recommend or approve any personnel action may not, with respect to that authority, take or threaten to take any action against any employee as a reprisal for making a complaint or disclosing information to the Inspector General, unless the complaint was made or the information disclosed with the knowledge that it was false or with willful disregard for its truth or falsity.

(f) The Inspector General must adopt rules, in accordance with the provisions of the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act, establishing minimum requirements for initiating, conducting, and completing investigations. The rules must establish criteria for determining, based upon the nature of the allegation, the appropriate method of investigation, which may include, but is not limited to, site visits, telephone contacts, personal interviews, or requests for written responses. The rules must also clarify how the Office of the Inspector General shall interact with other local, State, and federal law enforcement investigations.

Any employee of the Secretary of State subject to investigation or inquiry by the Inspector General or any agent or representative of the Inspector General concerning misconduct that is criminal in nature shall have the right to be notified of the right to remain silent during the investigation or inquiry and the right to be represented in the investigation or inquiry by an attorney or a representative of a labor organization that is the exclusive collective bargaining representative of employees of the Secretary of State. Any investigation or inquiry by the Inspector General or any agent or representative of the Inspector General must be conducted with an awareness of the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement that applies to the employees of the Secretary of State and with an awareness of the rights of the employees as set forth in State and federal law and applicable judicial decisions. Any recommendations for discipline or any action taken against any employee by the Inspector General or any representative or agent of the Inspector General must comply with the provisions of the collective bargaining agreement that applies to the employee.

(g) On or before January 1 of each year, the Inspector General shall report to the President of the Senate, the Minority Leader of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives on the types of investigations and the activities undertaken by the Office of the Inspector General during the previous calendar year.

WHEREAS, It has been reported and secretly known for some time that some male legislators, lobbyists, and staffers use their influence and power inappropriately when interacting with female legislators, lobbyists, and staffers; and

WHEREAS, No woman should have to contend with anyone who intimates that her professional assent is solely dependent on how quickly she responds to unwanted advances; and

[November 7, 2017]

WHEREAS, No female legislator, lobbyist, legislative staffer or campaign worker should feel abused, threatened, extorted, or forced to engage in sex while doing their job; and

WHEREAS, With each act of aggression, a woman internalizes the idea that she is not enough, that she somehow deserves this, that the only way to get ahead is to endure this type of dehumanizing behavior, with a smile no less; and

WHEREAS, Many women have not felt safe enough to share on social media because the truth can still cost you your career unless enough of us speak up; and

WHEREAS, Despite the fact that members of the General Assembly have adopted policies against sexual harassment in the workplace and training is available, the culture of harassment persists and extends beyond those subject to such policies; and
